Definition

- 2.01 Council Members and Committee Members shall not carry out their duties when they are in a conflict of interest.
- 2.02 A conflict of interest may be actual, potential or perceived.
 - a) A conflict of interest exists where a reasonable person could conclude that the personal or private interests of the individual Council Member or Committee Member, or a related person or related company, could improperly influence, or be perceived to influence, the individual's judgment in performing their duties as a Council Member or Committee Member.
 - b) An actual conflict exists when (1) the member has a private interest, (2) the member knows of the private interest, and (3) there is sufficient connection between the private interest and the member's public responsibilities to influence the performance of them.
 - c) A potential conflict exists as soon as a real conflict is foreseeable.
 - d) A perceived conflict exists when there is a reasonable apprehension, which reasonably well- informed persons could properly have, that a conflict of interest exists.
- 2.03 It is not a conflict of interest for a Council Member or a Committee Member to:
 - a) participate in a matter that affects all or most CRTO Members similarly unless the Member has an interest over and above that of all or most CRTO Members or the impact of the interest on the member is substantially greater than that of all or most other members;
 - b) participate in a matter that affects all or most public members similarly unless the public member has an interest over and above that of other public members or the impact of the interest on the public member is substantially greater than that of all or most other public members;
 - c) accept reasonable, usual and customary hospitality.

Avoiding a Conflict of Interest

- 2.04 A Council Member or Committee Member who has, or believes they have, a conflict of interest in a matter before the Council, a Committee or a panel shall:
- a) declare the conflict to the President, Registrar or Committee Chair at the earliest opportunity;

 - c) withdraw from the meeting, or in the case of a Council meeting that is open, withdraw from the Council table, for any discussion of or voting on the matter.
- 2.05 Council Members and Committee Members, related persons and related companies who wish to enter into contracts with the CRTO within one year of the end of their appointment or term, will have their proposals or applications referred to the Executive Committee for consideration, for the purpose of avoiding conflicts of interest.
- 2.06 Any Council Member or Committee Member who believes another Council Member or Committee Member has a conflict in relation to an issue before Council, a Committee or a panel which has not apparently been declared, may discuss the issue with the Council Member or Committee Member. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Council Member or Committee Member who perceives the conflict, that Council Member or Committee Member shall discuss it with the President, Registrar or Committee Chair, or raise it as a point of order in the meeting. If the President, Registrar or Committee Chair is unable to resolve the issue, it shall be brought to Council (unless it is inappropriate to do so, for example, in a matter arising on a Panel for a hearing) to determine if a conflict of interest exists. The decision of Council, as to whether or not a conflict of interest exists, is final.
- 2.07 A Council Member or Committee Member who acts in a conflict of interest is subject to disqualification under By-Law 2: Council and Committees, Article 2.28.
- 2.08 All declared conflicts and their resolution shall be recorded.

Managing Personal Bias

- 2.09 Council Members or Committee Members dealing with a member-specific matter must be impartial and appear to those present to be impartial.
- 2.10 Bias may be defined as holding, or appearing to hold, a preformed judgment or opinion or forming a judgment or opinion without thoughtful examination of all the facts, issues, and arguments. In any proceeding it is essential that the decision-makers be free of conflict of interest and bias. There are four (4) common ways in which a reasonable apprehension of bias may be created:
- i. where a relationship exists between a Council Member or Committee Member and a participant in the proceeding;
 - ii. by the conduct of a Council Member or Committee Member during the proceeding;

Code of Conduct & Conflict of Interest

- iii. through prior involvement or prejudgment by a Council Member or Committee Member;
 - iv. where a Council Member or Committee Member has a conflict of interest.
- 2.11 A close relationship, either personal or business, between a Council Member or Committee Member and the subject of the proceeding, the subject matter of the proceeding, or a participant in a proceeding may create an apprehension of bias. Such relationships include:
- a) relatives, personal friends, neighbours and acquaintances;
 - b) business partners or professional acquaintances;
 - c) persons with whom the panel member had a dispute in the past;
 - d) employer/employee and student/teacher relationships; or
 - e) practising in close association with (e.g., in the same hospital).

In deciding whether the relationship constitutes an appearance of bias, one must consider the nature and extent of the relationship, what type of information would pass between the panel member and participant, how long ago the relationship existed, the nature and size of the profession and the CRTO's policy in such matters.
